

Qualifications for 14 year olds

Can I really get accredited qualifications from 14 years of age?

Yes, any 14 year old can successfully complete an accredited qualification with LVS Training.

IMPORTANT information about enrolment

All learners that are not 18 years old at the time of enrolling will require an adult to authorise enrolment onto a LVS training course. The adult details will be completed on the enrolment form.

The authorised adult will:

1. Sign the consent form, allowing the 14 year old to enrol and complete any eligible qualification.
2. Be available for communication with LVS Training, if required.
3. Accompany the 14 year old to any locations relating to the qualification or exams, if required. (Or authorise an adult to do so)

How is the course assessed?

Assessment requirements: Most of the listed qualifications are internally assessed Assessments to measure a learner's skill, knowledge and understanding against the standards set in the qualification specification.

Achieving this qualification

In most qualifications, each learner will create a portfolio of evidence which may be drawn from actual or simulated situations, which demonstrates achievement of all the learning outcomes and assessment criteria associated with each unit. On completion of each unit learners must declare that the work produced is their own. The main pieces of evidence for the portfolio could include:

- Assessor observation - completed observational checklists and related action plans
- witness testimony
- Learner's proof of work • worksheets • assignments/projects/reports • record of professional discussion
- Record of oral and written questioning.

Entry requirements

There are no specific recommended prior learning requirements for these qualifications. This qualification is suitable for learners aged pre-16 and above, although it is recommended that learners should be aged at least 14.

Mode of study

A variety of teaching methods are used, dependent upon unit content and learner preferences.

Progression path

Learners who achieve these qualifications following the successful completion of all learning outcomes, will progress onto the next level to develop their skills, knowledge and understanding.
